

TOWNSHIPS TO CONSOLIDATE FOR NEW SCHOOL

CLOVERDALE AND THREE OWEN CO. TOWNSHIPS PLAN TO MERGE

Lester Parker, trustee of Cloverdale township announced today that Cloverdale township and three townships in Owen County, will be consolidated for school purposes as soon as the necessary legal steps can be taken. The townships in Owen County are Taylor on the east, Jennings in the center and Jackson on the west, and all bordering on Cloverdale.

The consolidation will mean a school enrollment for Cloverdale of more than 700 students. Many of the high school students are now enrolled in the Cloverdale school and more will be when the consolidation is completed. In the long run, the grade schools at Cunot and Quincy will be abandoned and all the pupils will be transported to Cloverdale.

This is the first step towards consolidating school units that has been made in this county. It has long been advocated by school authorities and apparently is the answer to the needs of many smaller schools over the state. It will mean a better school and at the same time, it will mean better teachers can be employed because of higher salaries and it will also mean less taxes for the property owners.

It will be a few years before the grade schools at Cunot and Quincy can be abandoned and then it will mean a new and larger school for Cloverdale.

Draw Blueprint For Own Doom

MUNICH (UP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman told Catholics behind the Iron Curtain today that Communists "drew the blueprint for the program that will, in time, ensure their own doom" when they forbade religious freedom.

Cardinal Spellman's message was beamed throughout the day over the Iron Curtain by Radio Free Europe here.

In a message filled with condemnation of Communist regimes, the cardinal dwelt on the effects of the Nov. 4 invasion of Hungary by Soviet armor.

He said "since that day of terror, thousands of men, women and children have fled their homeland, their only possession their glorious, invulnerable faith in God and trust in the nations of the free world. Hand in hand these anguished peoples made their way across land and water, a human chain inching its way to freedom."

The cardinal said: "If these Soviet Satans could be enkindled by faith as are Christians by evil, the joyous day of Christmas would never again be weighted with grief nor shadowed with fear caused by men organized to commit merciless deeds upon their fellowmen in order to enslave and dominate them. God intended no man to be slave to another."

DRUNK CARRIED $5,259 IN SEAT OF TROUSERS

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—When police arrested Fred Holden, 59, they found $5,259 concealed in the seat of his pants.

Holden was found lying on a near-downtown street corner Saturday. A jail search revealed a bib from a pair of overalls pinned to his trousers seat.

Rolling inside the bib were four $1,000 bills, a $500 bill, six $100 bills, two $50 bills, and smaller currency—totaling $5,259.

Holden said it was his life savings as a laborer. He said he withdrew it from a bank and intended to go to Blue Ridge, Ga., to visit an uncle.

He said he would deposit the money again after appearing in court on a drunkenness charge.

DULLES WARNS RISKS MAY BE TAKEN BY RUSS

PRESENT DIFFICULTIES CAN BE DANGEROUS TO FREE WORLD

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles says that the difficulties now besetting Soviet rulers may lead them to take risks and that this is "a world of danger" to the free world.

But Dulles said in a copyrighted interview in U. S. News & World Report that the free world also has entered the second post-war decade with "a vista of hope" for peace.

Both alternative possibilities stem from the same circumstance—conditions in Russia and its satellites, Dulles said.

"When a despotic regime, possessed of great military and material power and subject to no moral inhibitions, encounters such difficulties as now beset the Soviet rulers, they may take risks in hope of gaining external successes . . . to offset their frustrations," Dulles said.

This is the threat that may make the next decade "another decade of danger," Dulles said.

On the other hand, Dulles said, greater demands for more personal security, intellectual freedom and better living within the Soviet Union and rising rebelliousness in the satellites have opened up "a vista of hope."

If the United States and its Allies maintain their "moral offensive" and "military defensive, the promise of peace . . . will, I am convinced, become reality," Dulles said.

Graveside Rites For Miss Curran

Graveside rites were held Monday in Forest Hill cemetery for Miss Catherine Curran, 63, former Indianapolis teacher and a hand writing consultant, who died Friday in St. Vincent's Hospital.

Miss Curran suffered a heart attack last April. Her sister, Miss Honora J. Curran, retired as a teacher of Broad Ripple High School to attend her. Another sister, Mary C. Curran, died in October, 1955.

Born at Greencastle, Miss Curran had lived in Indianapolis since 1917. She attended the DePauw University School of Music, the University of Wisconsin and Columbia University.

For a number of years at the William Bess School. Suffering from bursitis, she took a year's leave of absence. Then she became interested in working for a publishing company as handwriting consultant. The last five years she had worked in that capacity for the Zaner-Bloser Publishing Co. of Columbus, O. In her work she traveled all over the United States.

Keenly interested in art and music, Miss Curran taught classes in both. She was a member of St. Joan of Arc and its Altar Society and Delta Theta Tau Sorority.

GOOD BUSINESS IS PREDICTED EARLY IN '57

I. U. RESEARCH BUREAU ISSUES FORECAST FOR NEW YEAR

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (UP)—The Indiana University Business Research Bureau predicts present prosperity conditions have sufficient momentum to carry Indiana and the nation forward into the new year at high levels. "Despite a few uncertainties, it is already clear that 1956 will be a record and that activity will continue to advance at least during the first few months of 1957," the bureau said in the current issue of its Indiana Business Review.

The bureau said the steel industry recovered rapidly from the steel strike and has been operating above rated capacity for 13 straight weeks. It said October production set a new record for any month, with output for the first time exceeding 11 million tons and November and December output will come close to that figure.

Turning to the automobile industry, the bureau said automobile manufacturers are "placing considerable faith in a two-year demand cycle" are "looking forward to improved sales in 1957."

Most producers believe sales in 1957 will reach 6.5 million, a figure 7 or 8 per cent above the 1956 total.

In summarizing 1956, the bureau said economists "must not be deceived by a money illusion."

Gross national production—the total output of goods and services in 1946. During this same period, prices to consumers have increased 46 per cent.

"Therefore, a large portion of the apparent increase in gross national production has been absorbed by the increasing price level. In real terms, the increase in output from 1955 to 1956 will amount to about 3 percent," the bureau said.

German People Hear Adenauer

BONN, Germany (UP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said today the cold war deadlock is breaking up and next year may bring German reunification "within grasping distance."

In the recorded Christmas Day broadcast to the German people, the chancellor who will be 81 Jan. 3, said the division of Germany is a "burning wound."

"The rift in our fatherland comes particularly painfully to our consciousness at this Christmas festival," Adenauer said. "It is true that hundreds of Christmas trees blaze along the Iron Curtain frontier today as a sign of the common Christmas. They sent their greetings across into the Soviet Zone where the people have only a grim reflection of the Christmas light."

The latter reference was to a scheme to set up brilliantly lighted Christmas trees along the western side of the whole East-West zone border as a greeting to 18 million Germans in the Soviet Zone.

Adenauer continued, "but the wound of division continues to burn and the time until reunification seems too long and hard."

"Yet we may hope that the year 1957, even though it does not bring to Germans in the Soviet-occupied zone the fulfillment of both our hearts' desire, at least will bring this fulfillment within grasping distance. Because the movement for which we have hoped so long in the rigid fronts seems at last to have come."

He said the return of the Saar territory to Germany on Jan. 1 is "a great joy for us all."

PLANS PROTEST FAST

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (UP)—A 45-year-old Swiss physician who says he will "fast until death" unless the world decides to halt all thermo-nuclear experiments.

Hunters Warned Against Disease

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—Hoosier rabbit hunters today were warned against tularemia, a "highly infectious disease" found primarily in rabbits and other rodents.

Dr. A. C. Offutt, state health commissioner, said mild infections of tularemia may pass unnoticed. "But more typically," he said, "tularemia gives rise to chills, fever, headache, prostration or a marked intestinal upset."

Offutt said observance of the following rules provides almost 100 per cent protection against the disease:

Avoid shooting rabbits that are inactive or appear ill. Don't handle rabbits found dead.

Wear rubber gloves when dressing wild game.

Destroy all rabbits whose internal organs are studded with small white spots—it may be tularemia.

Thoroughly cook wild game, especially rabbits. Thorough cooking of the meat destroys the germ of tularemia.

U. S. Recognizes New Government

WASHINGTON (UP)—The United States recognized the new government of Haiti, formed earlier this month when former President Paul E. Magloire was ousted from control by a general strike.

The State Department announced that the U. S. embassy in Haiti's capital, Port-au-Prince, informed that the United States has formally recognized the new government.

The government is headed by Provisional President Joseph N. Pierre-Louis, chief justice of the Haitian supreme court. The nation's constitution calls for the court to fill the presidency pending new elections.

Eisenhowers At Home For Xmas

WASHINGTON (UP)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower spent a quiet Christmas Eve at the White House and saved most of their holiday celebration until their grandchildren arrived this afternoon.

The President went to his office as usual yesterday morning. No official callers were scheduled, however, and he returned to the White House family quarters early in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower and her mother, Mrs. John S. Dowd, spent a quiet evening at home and there were no guests.

Pilgrimage Is Made By Israeli

JERUSALEM (UP)—A total of 1,700 Israeli Christians crossed the border of this divided city for their annual 35-hour pilgrimage to Christ's birthplace in the Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem.

The crossing was made through the Mandelbaum Gate which marks the 100-yard strip of no-man's land between Israel and Jordan territory. Barbed wire and shell-shattered buildings line the route between the two border posts.

Each pilgrim was allowed one Jordan pound ($2.80) by the Israeli government as a foreign currency allocation for the trip. Members of the consular corps did not make their annual pilgrimage to Bethlehem this year—for the first time since the state of Israel was founded in 1948—because of Jordanian refusal to allow British and French diplomats to enter.

In protest other members of the consular corps have boycotted the procession.

Instead they took part in Protestant services at the YMCA in the Israeli-held new city and attended midnight Mass at the Church of Dormition on Mount Zion.

They were joined by a number of Israeli Christians who have been refused entry visas for Bethlehem by the Jordanian authorities. It is believed they are relatives of Arab members of the Israeli parliament and civil service. In Israel the main center of Christmas festivities is in Nazareth which is now largely an Arab town.

A number of British and French soldiers from Cyprus arrived to spend their Christmas leave in the Nazareth district where Jesus spent his childhood, preached and performed many miracles.

EX-DIPLOMAT DIES

Xmas Observed In City, County

Residents of Greencastle and Putnam County, along with the rest of the nation, observed Christmas on Tuesday.

Practically every place of business and industry was closed. A number of firms in the community closed Saturday evening until Wednesday morning. The court house was included in the list as offices of the various county officials remained closed Monday and Tuesday.

Most all local stores closed at the usual time Monday so that employers and employees could spend Christmas Eve at home with their families.

Greencastle merchants reported a thriving Yuletide business which, in all probabilities, may prove the best in years.

Traffic Accidents Are Nearing 600

A United Press survey as of last night, showed a total of nearly 500 people had been killed in traffic and other accidents over the nation since the Christmas Holiday started.

It will run until early Wednesday morning and the National Safety Council of Chicago estimates that about 600 will meet death in tragic accidents during that period.

The estimate total will be missed far when the total count is made Wednesday morning, according to the best information today.

Gifts Showered On Korean Tots

SEOUL (UP)—The American soldier, known the world over for his creed for children of any race or creed, will have showered some 15,000 Korean children with gifts, parties and clothing before this Christmas season ends.

Almost every American unit from Pusan to the frontlines has had or will have its "orphan" party for needy schoolchildren or orphans.

Some of the parties are being held in the orphanages, others were staged in the unit areas where the kids were pampered by tough sergeants, veteran officers and young soldiers.

The kids, many of them bashful in front of their American benefactors eagerly opened presents, tried on new clothing or hungrily ate special dinners prepared for them.

HUNT FORGERY RING

Police investigators are seeking members of a five-city southwestern Indiana check forging ring who have cost merchants $900 since Thursday.

Police believe two rings are concentrating their forays at Huntingburg, Rockport, Evansville, Mt. Vernon and Oakland City.

The bad check passers are using names of prominent farmers in the Huntingburg area. Bad checks from an Evansville Construction Co. also have been used. Police theorize stolen payroll checks are being used.

Troops In Korea Enjoy Christmas

FRONT, Korea (UP)—American fighting men who watch, wait and guard against Communist treachery along the bitterly cold Korean front marked Christmas Eve quietly last night.

Some were manning lonely outposts peering through powerful telescopes for signs of illegal Communist movement.

Others patrolled the military demarcation line between the United Nations and the Communist positions, possibly brushing shoulders with their enemy counterparts in the windswept no man's land.

Some Americans stood lonely vigils in stakeout and roadcheck positions into U. N. lines by the Communists.

But whatever their station will be, they would be looking forward to hot turkey dinner with all the trimmings that all of America's fighting men in Korea will eat during the Yuletide observances.

Sgt. 1. C. Jeff J. James, Lawrence, Okla., and his seven-man detachment will greet Christmas in their desolate observation point on the western front.

But Christmas has followed them into their bunker; James and his "family" have turned their main room into an unexpected Christmas scene for this part of Korea.

In one corner is a fully decorated Christmas tree with real stateside ornaments and under it gaily wrapped Christmas presents.

Colored crepe paper ribbon streamers criss-cross the timber reinforced ceiling with handmade gold paper stars putting sparkle into the display.

New Jap Leader Looks To U. S.

TOKYO (UP)—Prime Minister Tanzan Ishibashi said he will maintain the government policy of strengthening ties with the free world, particularly the United States.

Ishibashi said he desired to correct what he termed a "mis-

$72 BILLION IS ASKED IN IKE'S BUDGET

BUDGET, HOWEVER, TO BE BALANCED FOR THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower's fiscal 1958 budget is expected to call for more than 72 billion dollars of federal spending, an increase of possibly 3 billion dollars over this year.

The budget will balance for the third straight year, informed sources said.

But substantial tax cuts are out for the time being. This includes the small business tax relief proposed by a presidential Cabinet committee last summer.

Exact details of the budget are under secrecy wraps until President Eisenhower submits it to Congress in mid-January. But it is certain to include bigger figures for defense, atomic energy, farm programs and interest on the public debt.

The projected increase for defense is roughly two billion dollars.

Congress will again be asked to increase revenues by raising postal rates.

19 Return From Red Slave Camps

VIENNA (UP)—A man claiming to be an American citizen was among 19 persons repatriated as Austrians after years in Russian slave camps.

The man was identified as Rudolf Czerni, 46. He said he once was employed by the U. S. Army in Germany and had an American address in Johnston City, Ill.

U. S. Consul R. D. Heacock and other embassy officials specializing in U. S. citizenship claims said Czerni had not made official contact with them.

Vienna newspapers listed Czerni as a stateless person domiciled in Vienna. Refugee records listed him as a person claiming to be an American holding the rank of colonel.

Czerni claimed he was kidnapped by Russian agents while working for the American Army in Frankfurt in 1948. He said the Russians charged him with spying and tortured him with red hot wires. He showed scars to support his story. He said the Russians held him variously in East Germany, Moscow and the former Soviet zone of Austria.

He said he also spent time in the dread Vorkuta labor camp near the Arctic Circle.

Czerni said while he was in the Vorkuta camp he met a 30-year-old American from Jersey City, N. J., named James Burns. U. S. files based on refugee reports listed no one named Burns.

BOBBY HAS ACCIDENT

Everett, Wash. (UP)—When the ambulance driver placed him on the stretcher, 8-year-old Bobby Long pleaded: "Don't let my mommy see me like this."

Bobby was thinking of his mother when he got hurt. He was searching the freight yards for bottles to sell so he could buy her a Christmas present. He'd already collected 16 cents and was having good luck adding to the sum when the accident occurred Saturday afternoon.

Later in Providence Hospital, Bobby's dad, an electrician, brushed back a tear and said proudly, "He'll get along okay. That kid's got all the spunk in the world."

Hospital attendants, echoing the father's words, said today Bobby was in fair condition and was holding his own.

After the story of Bobby's accident was told, contributions started coming in. It appeared on Christmas Eve that Bobby would have enough money to buy his mother the present.

And maybe there would be enough left over to buy Bobby a pair of artificial legs to replace his own which were severed under the wheels of a switch engine.

MARRIED SUNDAY IN LENA METHODIST CHURCH

Mr. and Mrs. Raeburn Earl Turner

The marriage of Miss Mary Ann Phipps and Pvt. Raeburn Earl Turner was solemnized Sunday Dec. 23, at 2:30 in the Lena Methodist church.

Dr. Buel Horn read the marriage vows, assisted by Wayne Stork, pastor of the church, before an altar decorated with Christmas greens and gladoli and lighted by candelabra.

Bridal selections were played by Mrs. Horn at the piano.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Homer Phipps, was attired in a beautiful gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with long sleeves and carried a bouquet of carnations and rose buds.

The bridesmaid, Patsy Swim, wore a ballerina length dress of gold satin and carried a white carnation bouquet.

Lloyd Hoskins was best man. Ushers were Jimmy Bill and Michael Ray Phipps, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Phipps wore a charcoal dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. The couple received many lovely gifts.

Mr. Dale Gets Hand And Goes Down One

After Mr. Champion put in his one spade overall, the right technical bid for Mr. Dale was two hearts.

All Mr. Abel still was not playing his best game, so Mr. Dale thought he had better see what the chances were for him to play the hand himself. Hence his two club bid.

You are entitled to raise your eyebrows at Mr. Abel's decision to bid four clubs. For all he knew he might push his opponents into a game contract they could make. But the bid turned out well as Mr. Champion could have made just three spades.

SPADES OPEN

When Mrs. Keen won the first two tricks with the ace and king of spades, Mr. Dale felt sure that both the king of hearts and the king of diamonds were on his right.

At trick three Mrs. Keen shifted to the nine of diamonds. The ten was played from dummy and Mr. Dale was not surprised when Mr. Champion won with the jack.

The five of clubs was returned and Mr. Dale pulled three rounds of trumps, ending in dummy. Then he led the seven of hearts towards his jack. Sure enough, Mr. Champion had the king and since it was guarded only once he won the trick and led back a spade.

RUFFED IN HAND

Mr. Dale ruffed in his hand, cashed the jack of hearts and led his last heart to dummy's ace. The fourth heart from the board furnished a discard for a losing diamond.

Thus, the old boy was down one, losing one heart, one diamond and two spades. He was on pretty thin ice on this one.

He could have been doubled and set two, for 300 points, if his opponents had defended perfectly. That is, if Mrs. Keen had shifted to a diamond at trick two Mr. Champion could have won with the jack and returned to his partner's hand with a spade for another lead through dummy's diamond.

As it was, however, Mr. Dale was pleased. He was glad to give his opponents 50 points above the line instead of a fat partial score of 90.

Sumatra Revolt May Bring Action

JAKARTA, Indonesia (UP)—President Sukarno may declare a state of war and siege in an attempt to stamp out the spreading fires of revolt, political sources said today.

Two army revolts already have seized control of two-thirds of Sumatra, an island that leads the world in rubber production and has the richest oil fields in south-east Asia.

The revolts seriously endangered the nation's economy since Sumatra, through oil, rubber and tin, provides 71 per cent of the nation's foreign exchange.

The capital was keeping a close watch on south Sumatra to see if army commanders there would join the revolution, aimed at obtaining more political autonomy and a greater share of the island's wealth for Sumatra.

Political sources said even more dangerous than the defection of south Sumatra would be an outbreak of the revolt elsewhere that could topple the government—and perhaps lead to disintegration of the six-year-old republic.

The sources said Sukarno might declare a nationwide state of war and siege. They also said he might attempt to form a new presidential cabinet in which he would have dictatorial power.

Political sources said the cabinet of Premier Ali Sastroamidjojo was "playing with fire" in its attempts to divide the rebels in central Sumatra from those in the north Sumatra province.

Charge Egypt With Attacks

TEL AVIV, Israel (UP)—The Israeli Foreign Office charged that Egypt has resumed Fedayeen suicide commando attacks against Israel in a "deliberate flouting" of a United Nations resolution.

Foreign Office Director General Walter Eytan said a clinic at Yoknean in Galilee was blown up in the latest attack. He also said commandos had committed a "brutal murder" at Telmond, near Haifa.

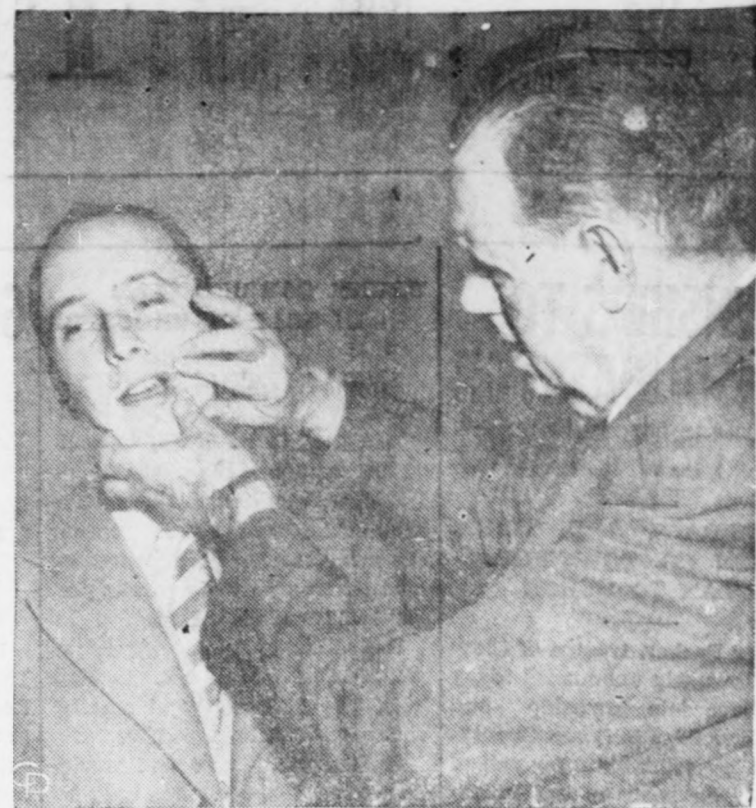

Eytan said the commando attacks were resumed following Cairo Radio announcements that a large-scale winter campaign was being planned.

"This police must have disastrous results for security in the Middle East," Eytan warned.

SIX DIE IN HOSPITAL FIRE

Minneapolis firemen carry to safety a patient of Doctors' Memorial Hospital where a Sunday morning fire killed six persons, five of them women. Nearly 80 patients were sleeping in the private hospital in downtown Minneapolis when a Christmas tree flared up, turning the lobby into flames. Smoke inhalation, which caused the deaths, put nine other persons in critical condition, including a baby and a surgeon who had reported to perform an operation.

United Press Staff Looks Ahead To Headline Stories In New Year

By Charles M. McCann
United Press correspondents around the world look ahead at the news that will make the headlines.

Blockbuster

The Senate investigating subcommittee is quietly getting ready for blockbuster hearings in the early spring on labor racketeering. Investigators have been digging into the background of the New York hoodlums implicated in the acid blinding of labor columnist Victor Riesel. But that phase of the spadework is described as only incidental to the main investigation, which has threads leading to most of the country's major industrial centers.

Times Have Changed

A few years ago it would have been incredible. But you can look for the appointment next spring of a German general as commander in chief of the North Atlantic Treaty ground forces in Central Europe. He's Lt. Gen. Hans Speidel, chief of the armed forces of section of the West German Defense Ministry and one-time chief of staff to "Desert Fox" Field Marshal Erwin Rommel. Insiders say Speidel is a near certainty for the post, now vacant. The appointment is being delayed to permit the West German Defense Ministry to reorganize its top army command before Speidel leaves.

Thank You Note

Bertha Adkins, assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee, is being honored for an important government post. It's partly a "thank you" for her campaign work, partly because of the need for a new petticoat appointment. The resignations of Clare Boothe Luce as ambassador to Italy and Dr. Martha Eliot as head of the Children's Bureau have whittled down the number of women holding top administration jobs. Mrs. Adkins, a friendly brunette from Salisbury, Md., rules out only one possibility—says she hasn't enough money to hold a diplomatic post.

Shocked

Shocked British church and civic societies are getting ready to let loose a blast against an official government report, due soon, on prostitution and homosexuality. Conclusions in the report are supposed to be top secret. But it's leaked out that they include: 1. Prostitution, legal in Britain if the woman does not actively solicit or cause a disturbance, will remain legal. 2. Homosexuality will be more or less condoned officially provided it does not involve soliciting or public nuisance.

Sports Outlook

Fireworks are in prospect when the Chicago Bears and the New York Giants play for the National Football League championship Sunday. The Detroit Lions have accused the Bears of playing "deliberately dirty" football. The Giants are rated one of the league's cleanest-playing teams. But if the going gets rough, they'll be in there. A savage tussle, in which nearly anything goes, is expected. The Bears should win, with their stronger all-around team, even though they had to rally to get a 17-17 tie with the Giants last month.

SQUELCHES HOPES

LONDON (UP)—Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-lai Monday squelched hopes for an early release of 10 American civilians still held captive behind the Bamboo Curtain.

Chou, currently wooing neutral and pro-Western nations on a Southeast Asian tour, assailed the United States for failing to confer with the Peiping regime on the foreign minister level, and accused the United States of breaking a bargain on prisoner exchange.

Correspondence Is A Chore For Adlai

CHICAGO (UP)—If you think mailing your Christmas cards was a chore, consider the task of Adlai E. Stevenson's staff.

Seven weeks have passed since the election, but Stevenson's office is still answering the flood of post-election mail.

Well-wishers swamped the twice-defeated Democratic presidential candidate with an estimated 40,000 letters and telegrams. And that doesn't include a few thousand Christmas cards, still coming in.

Most of the letters run in the same vein. They come from supporters who were crushed by Stevenson's loss, but who beg him to continue to make his views known.

Even though Stevenson says he won't run again, many people ask him to keep himself available in 1960.

Down But Not Out
"Two strikes isn't an out," a New Yorker wrote. "Should you some day decide to go to bat again, I'll be on your team."

A Massachusetts man told how his teen-age son collects old Ike buttons and repays them to read "Adlai in '60."

From Austin, Tex., a couple wrote that "The team of Stevenson and Kefauver may be down for the moment—but never out."

Some writers offer their opinions on why Stevenson lost. A Washington, D. C., man said Stevenson didn't have "a shadow of a chance" because he was "too intelligent."

This writer said President Eisenhower was "within the reach of the average voters whereas you hover too far above their heads," a criticism heard in various forms during the campaign.

A Detroit couple said the threat of war had "panicked" the voters and they acted "like a herd of cattle plunging over a cliff."

All Get Answer
Stevenson wants all of the letters answered. The bulk of the job has been completed by half a dozen volunteers and two members of his campaign staff—Ellen Bond of Greenwich, Conn., and Solveig Stetteland of Pigeon Falls, Wis.

Some of the correspondents get a Christmas card or form letter. Others get separate acknowledgments signed by Stevenson or his personal secretary, Carol Evans.

With each answer goes a small printed copy of the remarks Stevenson delivered when he conceded defeat election night—a talk which many of the writers request.

A typical reply letter from Stevenson ran like this:

"If I troubled the nation's sleep a little I am satisfied. Yet I regret that I could not better fulfill the hopes and expectations of my friends."

"For your kindness and confidence I shall be forever grateful."

Recalls Last Budapest Xmas

By Joe Pasternak
HOLLYWOOD (UP)—The last Christmas I spent in Budapest

BLONDIE

JOHNNY HAZARD

will always remain in my memory as one of the most beautiful I've ever spent.

It was in 1935, and the city was like a fairyland with snow castles everywhere, sounds of bells and music, horse-pulled sleighs filled with laughing people. The stores were full of beautiful things. Christmas decorations were everywhere.

I have never felt such an atmosphere of the real Christmas spirit as I did that year because everywhere was life and love, which are the real meaning of Christmas.

I was born in Hungary. The Christmas in our village were filled with love and worship but with no gayety because there was no money to buy gifts. But in 1935, I was in Budapest again after having immigrated to the United States and been fortunate enough to get into the movie business. We were making a picture in Budapest, "The Little Mother," and there were several children in the cast.

In Hungary Christmas was mainly for the children, and so I had a big party at the studio with a big tree and invited other children from the orphanage. There were presents for everyone. Following the party I went with a group of the children, as I had none of my own then, and visited their homes, singing folk and religious songs.

Christmas in Budapest is about like Christmas here except not so commercial. Or I should say Christmas in Budapest used to be that way.

Let us pray that soon the day will come when Budapest is again filled with Christmas trees instead of tanks.

I have been working with a number of wonderful Hollywood people to raise funds for the benefit of my countrymen. Our benefit performances at the Shrine Auditorium raised many thousands of dollars which will help make a few of the sad people in Budapest a little happier this Christmas.

But they will need much more help for the next year. I hope all Americans will help in any way they can. If you wish to, send your contributions to me at MGM Studio or to the United Nations Hungarian Relief Fund.

taken impression" that he was "anti-American" because of his "clashes" with United States occupation authorities.

"Even now I do not think that swallowing everything the United States says would be good for both countries," he said. "We must say frankly to each other what must be said and argue for the benefit of the two countries. I think this eventually will contribute to world peace."

Inside WASHINGTON

MARCH OF EVENTS

Bulgaria Next Satellite To Defy Russ Overlords?

Tito Believed Undermining Bulgar Link to Kremlin

Special to Central Press Association

WASHINGTON—American experts on events behind the Iron Curtain are keeping a careful watch on Bulgaria where they see evidences that a new outbreak of unrest against Communist rule may flare into the open. There have been rumblings of discontent among the Bulgarian people for several months although no reports of outright resistance against the Soviet-imposed regime in the satellite nation.

Confidential sources say that most of the unrest prevails among the lower or peasant classes who are becoming more and more dissatisfied with their economic status under Communism. Furthermore, it is believed that Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia is secretly encouraging Bulgaria to break away from Kremlin dominance and form a closer alliance with Tito's regime.

American authorities concede there is little chance that a Bulgarian uprising will reach the explosive proportions of the revolt in Hungary because the Soviet Union has imposed strict Russian military control in Bulgaria. However, they point out that any widespread demonstrations in Bulgaria would be another Kremlin headache and force Soviets to strengthen their military units in the satellite nation.

● MISCONCEPTION ABOUT A MISFIRE—Diplomatic authorities in Washington point out that the reasons why Britain and France decided to invade Egypt have become so obscure that the American public is laboring under a general and complete misconception.

The almost universal conviction is that the British and French invaded Egypt to force a solution to the Suez canal problem because they believed no other course was open to them. The facts of the case are just about the opposite, according to highly-placed and completely diplomatic quarters in Washington.

As the authorities view it, Britain and France took military action not because of no solution in sight but because one was—but one that would have permitted Egyptian Premier Abdel Nasser to remain in power.

The French were determined that Nasser would have to be eliminated because of their conviction he was stirring up trouble for their government in Algeria.

The British were primarily concerned because Nasser's seizure of the Suez canal threatened their access to oil supplies and their trade with the Far East. They distrusted the Egyptian leader and were adamant against any solution that would keep him in power and enhance his prestige in the Arab world.

Accordingly, the two western powers acted in unison to topple Nasser for two entirely different reasons. Ironically, British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and French Premier Guy Mollet who gambled to get rid of Nasser may, by their very own tactics, have toppled no one but themselves.

● NEW MOLD—The appointment of retiring Massachusetts Gov. Christian A. Herter as under secretary of state succeeding Herbert Hoover, Jr., is being interpreted in Washington as a clear step by President Eisenhower to install "New Republicanism" as the order of the day.

Observers insist that Hoover was not forced out of the job and that he resigned solely to return to private work where he is assured of an income exceeding that of a government official. However, they note that the selection of Herter as his successor means that from here on, Mr. Eisenhower will tap men who firmly believe in liberal Republican policies.

Inasmuch as he will be compelled to leave the White House in 1960, the President will try in the next four years to establish men of his own choice in key government position rather than merely giving jobs to old-time, hide-bound Republicans who might seek to reverse his policies once he is gone.

Liberals

Defies U. S. Ban, Enters Red China

WASHINGTON, (UP)—Government officials expressed concern today that American newsman William Worthy's visit to Communist China may "jeopardize" the release of Americans being held prisoner there.

Worthy entered Red China today in defiance of the State Department's ban on travel to Communist China by Americans. He is a Negro employed by the weekly news magazine "Afro-American" of Baltimore, Md. The State Department's official reaction was restricted to a brief statement from press officer Joseph Reap. "We deplore it," Reap said.

Miss Kethley said the notes prove what the Russians deny—that Hungarians have been deported. (International)
